SECTION 512.        AA-AIRPORT AIRSPACE OVERLAY DISTRICT

Section 512.1        Purpose

An Airport Airspace (AA) area, to be superimposed over existing zoning districts. It is established for the purposes of regulating and restricting the height of structures and objects of natural growth, and otherwise regulating the use of property in the vicinity of public airports and heliports designated on the Official Zoning Map by creating airport approach, transitional, horizontal and conical zones, and establishing the boundaries thereof.

Section 512.2                    Establishment of zones and Height Limitations

- (a) Airport Zones. In order to carry out the provisions of this article, there are hereby established certain zones which include all of the area under the approach transitional, horizontal, and conical surfaces defined hereinafter and shown on the Official Zoning Map. An area located in more than one (1) of the following zones with the more restrictive height limitation. The various zones are defined as follows:
- (1) Utility Runway Visual Approach Zone. The inner edge of this approach zone coincides with the width of the primary surface and is two hundred fifty (250) feet wide. The approach zone expands outward uniformly to a width of one thousand- two hundred fifty (1,250) feet to a horizontal distance of five thousand (5,000) feet from the primary surface. Its centerline of the runway.
  - (2) Utility Runway Non-Precision Instrument Approach Zone. The inner edge of this approach zone coincides with the width of the primary surface and is five hundred (500) feet wide. The approach zone expands outward uniformly to width of two thousand (2,000) feet at a horizontal distance five thousand (5,000) feet from the primary surface. Its centerline is the continuation of the runway.
  - (3) Runway Other Than Utility Visual Approach Zone. The inner edge of this approach zone coincides with the width of the primary surface and is five hundred (500) feet wide. The approach zone expands outward uniformly to a width of one thousand-five hundred (1,500) feet at a horizontal distance of five thousand (5,000) feet from the primary surface. Its centerline is the continuation of the centerline of the runway.
  - (4) Runway Other Than Utility with a Visibility Minimum Greater Than Three-Fourths Mile Non-Precision Instrument Approach Zone. The inner edge of this approach zone coincides with the width of the primary surface and is five hundred (500) feet wide. The approach zone expands outward uniformly to a width of three thousand-five hundred (3,500) feet at a horizontal distance of ten thousand (10,000) feet from the primary surface. Its centerline is the continuation of the centerline of the runway.

- (5) Runway other Than Utility with a Visibility Minimum as Low as Three-Fourths Mile None-Precision Instrument Approach Zone. The inner edge of this approach zone coincides with the width for the primary surface and is one thousand (1,000) feet wide. The approach zone expands outward uniformly to a width of four thousand (4,000) feet at a horizontal distance of ten thousand (10,000) feet from the primary surface. Its centerline is the continuation of the centerline of the runway.
- (6) Precision Instruments Runway Approach Zone and Military Runway Approach Zone. The inner edge of this approach zone coincides with the width of the primary surface and is one thousand (1,000) feet wide. The approach zone expands outward uniformly to a width of sixteen thousand (16,000) feet at a horizontal distance of fifty thousand (50,000) feet from the primary surface. Its centerline is the continuation of the centerline of the runway.
- (7) Helicopter Approach Zone. The inner edge of this approach zone coincides with the width of the primary surface. The approach zone expands outward uniformly to a width of five hundred (500) feet at a horizontal distance of four thousand (4,000) feet from the primary surface.
- (8) Transitional Zones. The transitional zones are the area beneath the transitional surface.
- (9) Helicopter Transitional Zones. These zones extend outward from the sides of the primary surface and the helicopter approach zones a horizontal distance of two hundred fifty (250) feet from the primary surface centerline and the helicopter approach zone centerline.
- (10) Horizontal Zone. The horizontal zone is established by swinging arcs of five thousand (5,000) feet radii for all runways designated utility or visual, or arcs of ten thousand (10,000) feet radii for all other runways from the center of each end of the runway and shall be the longest determined for either end. The horizontal zone does not include the approach and transitional zones.
- (11) Conical Zone. The conical zone is established as the area that commences at the periphery of the horizontal zone and extends outward a horizontal distance of four thousand (4,000) feet.

Section 512.3 Height Limitations

Except as otherwise provided in this article, no structure shall be erected, altered, or maintained, and no tree shall be allowed to grow in any zone created by this article to a height in excess of the applicable height limit herein established for such zone. The height limitations for each zone are as follows:

- (1) Utility Runway Visual Approach Zone. Slopes twenty (20) feet outward for each foot upward beginning at the end of and at the same elevation as the primary surface and extending to a horizontal distance of five (5,000) feet along the extended runway centerline.
- (2) Utility Runway Non-Precision Instrument Approach Zone. Slopes twenty (20) feet outward for each foot upward beginning at the end of and at the same elevation as the primary surface and extending to a horizontal distance of five thousand (5,000) feet along the extended runway centerline.
- (3) Runway Other Than Utility Visual Approach Zone. Slopes twenty (20) feet outward for each foot upward beginning at the end of and at the same elevation as the primary surface and extending to be a horizontal distance of five thousand (5,000) feet along the extended runway centerline.
- (4) Runway Other Than Utility with a Visibility Minimum Greater Than Three-Fourths Mile Non-Precision Instrument Approach Zone. Slopes thirty-four (34) feet outward for each foot upward beginning at the end of and at the same elevation as the primary surface and extending to a horizontal distance of ten thousand (10,000) feet along the extended runway centerline.
- (5) Precision Instrument Runway Approach Zone and Military Runway Approach Zone. Slopes fifty (50) feet outward for each foot upward beginning at the end of and at the same elevation as the primary surface and extending to a horizontal distance of ten thousand (10,000) feet along the extended runway centerline; then slopes upward forty (40) feet horizontally for each foot vertically to an additional horizontal distance of forty thousand (40,000) feet along the extended runway centerline.

In addition to the foregoing, there are established height limits sloping seven (7) feet outward for each foot upward beginning at the sides of and at the same elevation as the approach surface, and extending to where they intersect the conical surface. Where the precision instrument runway approach zone projects beyond the conical zone, there are established height limits sloping seven (7) feet outward for each foot upward beginning at the sides of and at the same elevations the approach surface, and extending a horizontal distance of five thousand (5,000) feet measured at ninety (90) degree angles to the extended runway centerline.

- (8) Heliport Transitional Zones. Slope two (2) feet outward for each foot upward beginning at the sides of and at the same elevation as the primary surface and the heliport approach zones and extending a distance of two hundred fifty (250) feet measured horizontally from and at ninety (90) degree angles to the primary surface centerline and heliport approach zones centerline.
- (9) Horizontal Zone. Established at one hundred fifty (150) feet above the airport elevation.
